

Globe Willow (Common Name)

Salix matsudana 'Navajo' (Scientific Name)

PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS

Canopy potential: 30' – 40' wide

Annual Growth Rate: 36"

Powerline Friendly: 40' – 50' from base

Root Damage Potential: High

Leaves: Light green, linear to 3".

Flowers: Inconspicuous.

ENVIRONMENTAL CHARACTERISTICS

Water Use: Moderate

Edible Fruit Producing: No

Allergenic: High

BVOC Emissions: High

Sonoran Desert Native: No

Invasive Species: No

Tree Care: Plant in full sun to partial shade. Tolerant of most soils. Water every 1-2 and a half weeks. Prune damaged/diseased or dead branches in the summer or the fall.

Ecosystem Services: This tree is useful for erosion control or for shade.